

*Welcome to Vajrapani-Hayagriva-Garuda Weekend Online Retreat with Drubpon Tsering Rinpoche
March 19 – 20, 2022 via Ratnashri Meditation Center's Zoom*

Empowerment, Teaching, and Practice of
The Three Wrathful Protection Deities--Vajrapani, Hayagriva and Garuda
Emanations of the Three Great Bodhisattvas-Vajrapani, Chenrezig, and Manjushri
Based on the profound Atiyoga sadhana composed by the 7th Garchen Rinpoche

All buddhas are one within the expanse of primordial wisdom, but that single essence manifests in various, distinct aspects. The Wisdom Garuda is an emanation of all buddhas' enlightened body appearing to tame the nagas and underground negative forces. Hayagriva, the Powerful Lotus, is an emanation of all buddhas' enlightened speech appearing to tame the negative earthly forces and all classes of spirits. Vajrapani, the Powerful Lord of Secrets embodies all buddhas' enlightened mind appearing to overpower the negative heavenly forces, the eight classes of demons, and all obstructors. Moreover, the Three Wrathful Protection Deities Vajrapani, Hayagriva and Garuda are emanations of the Three Great Bodhisattvas—Vajrapani (Power of Buddha), Chenrezig (Compassion of Buddha), and Manjushri (Wisdom of Buddha). These three deities together embody compassion, wisdom, and power of all buddhas combined. During this degenerate age when many beings engage in non-virtuous activities and very few practice virtues, this has disturbed the gods above, the nagas below and the eight classes of spirits in between. Forces of darkness prevail everywhere. As a result, many people are struck by sudden death, dangerous illnesses, various harms, obstacles, and cannot escape the great ocean of suffering. At this time, the compassion of these three exalted deities is swift and their blessings are more powerful. Thus, the benefits of receiving this empowerment are immense. It is said that only mentioning their names will render demons and obstacles powerless. One will attain spiritual accomplishments. Therefore, it is needless to mention the inconceivable benefits of actually engaging and practicing after having received the profound blessings of the secret empowerment.

The teaching and practice of the Three Wrathful Protection Deities are based on the very precious and profound sadhana composed by the 7th Garchen Rinpoche (current Garchen Rinpoche's previous incarnation). Don't miss this rare and auspicious opportunity to receive blessings, explanation, and transmission of this blessed Atiyoga Dzogdhen practice.

The samaya for the empowerment is bodhicitta and refraining from non-virtues of body, speech and mind, i.e., according to Buddha's teaching: Perform all virtues, avoid all non-virtues, and purify the mind. Bodhicitta is the essence of all Dharma practice. To maintain bodhicitta means with full mindfulness-awareness, one constantly observes the state of one's mind and benefits all mother sentient beings wherever one is.

All teachings will be translated from Tibetan to English by Solvej Nielsen.
